A. General information about the course:

1. Course Identification

1. Credit hours: (03)

2. Course type

A. ☐ University ☐ College ☒ Department ☐ Track ☐ Others
B. ☒ Required ☐ Elective

3. Level/year at which this course is offered: (8th Level/ 4th year)

4. Course general Description:

This course provides an in-depth exploration of pragmatics, a branch of linguistics concerned with how context influences the interpretation of meaning in communication. It explores how speakers use language to convey and interpret messages beyond literal meanings, focusing on aspects such as speech acts, implicature, presupposition, deixis, and conversational maxims. Students will engage with theoretical frameworks and apply them to analyze real-world language use across different cultural and social contexts. The course aims to enhance students' understanding of the dynamic relationship between language, meaning, and context in effective communication.

5. Pre-requirements for this course (if any):

None

6. Co-requisites for this course (if any):

N/A

7. Course Main Objective(s):

The primary objective of this course is to provide students with a solid foundation in the principles of pragmatics, enabling them to analyze and interpret how meaning is constructed in communication through context, social norms, and speaker intentions, while developing their abilities to apply pragmatic theories to real-world interactions across diverse cultural and linguistic settings.
