3. Level/year at which this course is offered: (2nd/1st)

4. Course General Description:

Reading 2 course introduces students to several comprehension passages, stimulating them first to make predictions about related issues using their information and experience. It also develops their ability to look up the meaning of some words and phrases. In addition, it enables them to do oral discussions in pairs or small groups using newly learned words/expressions. Students are encouraged to answer comprehension questions, build vocabulary, and make sentence grammatical corrections using various question types. The students' acquired knowledge is consolidated by motivating them to think and express their opinions on matters related to the topic of the unit.
