

Computer Science Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

PEO-1: To demonstrate professional competence by effectively applying computing knowledge and concepts to solve real-world problems in their chosen fields.

PEO-2: To succeed in the computing profession by demonstrating strong problem-solving, adaptability, and professional skills.

PEO-3: To contribute significantly to the community as a part of a team or individually with accountable, legal, ethical, and responsible practices.

PEO-4: To engage in lifelong learning and professional development through education, research, and emerging new technologies.