

Program Educational Objectives (PEO)

Technically competent in their respective architectural engineering field and conceiving, designing and executing broad range of architectural engineering tasks locally and globally

Meet industry expectations in architectural engineering with excellent communication and leadership skills

Contribute to the society through providing innovative solution for architectural engineering problems and function on multi-disciplinary team

Pursue their architectural engineering professional development through self-learning and advanced graduate studies if qualified and interested

Uphold professional and social ethics necessary in fulfilling his responsibilities towards the Almighty, clients and the society and contribute to the sustainable development of the kingdom