

The standardized template of writing material

- 1. Training Course Title (The title of the training course is inserted as listed on the training plan)

- 2. Course Overview (A general overview is provided on the content and general objective of the training course, as well as its relation to the trainees; a maximum of 200 words)

- 3. Expected outcomes (A maximum of 8 expected outcomes are inserted)

- 4. Domains (Making a list of the main topics of the course)

- 5. Academic Content (The academic content of the training course's topics is written according to the standards of writing the academic content in the trainee's handbook. The following principles shall be considered: Continuity, sequence, integrity, and balance between the logical and psychological orders)

6. Conclusion of the Training Course (An abbreviated final summary is written on the most significant issues covered in addition to a set of scientific recommendations on the topic that may help achieve better practices in the field).

7. References (A list of references employed in writing the academic content of the course is written according to an approved citation method).

